Keele University Students' Union
Charitable Incorporated Organisation
Constitution

BACKGROUND

(This Background does not form part of the operative provisions of the Constitution)

- (A) Keele University Students' Union (the "Union") is a students' union within the meaning of the Education Act 1994. The Union is devoted to the educational interests and welfare of its Student Members.
- (B) The Union will seek to:
 - (i) recognise the diversity of its Student Membership and ensure the equal treatment and equal access of all Student Members to the Union's services whatever their origin or orientation;
 - (ii) pursue its aims and objectives independent of any political party or religious group; and
 - (iii) pursue equal opportunities by taking positive action within the law to facilitate participation of groups discriminated against by society.
- (C) Whilst it is the responsibility of the Board of Trustees to manage the affairs of the Union in a professional manner, this Constitution has been structured so as to make provision for the views of the Student Members to be communicated to and given due weight by the Board of Trustees in undertaking their work, and to enable the Student Members to enjoy the right, which must be exercised in accordance with charity law, to elect a proportion of the Trustees and to dismiss all of the Trustees.
- (D) Under the Education Act 1994, Keele University has a statutory duty to ensure that the Union operates in a fair and democratic manner and is held to proper account for its finances. The Union will therefore work alongside Keele University in ensuring that the affairs of the Union are properly conducted and that the educational and welfare needs of the Union's Student Members are met.
- (E) The Union is established as a Charitable Incorporated Organisation based on the Foundation Model of the Charity Commission.

TRUSTEES' POWERS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

31. Trustees' general authority

- 31.1 The Trustees shall manage the affairs of the Union and (subject to the Education Act, this Constitution and the Bye-Laws) may for that purpose exercise all the powers of the Union. It is the duty of each Trustee:
- 31.1.1 to exercise his or her powers and to perform his or her functions in his or her capacity as a Trustee in the way he or she decides, in good faith, would be most likely to further the purposes of the Union; and
- 31.1.2 to exercise, in the performance of those functions, such care and skill as is reasonable in the circumstances, having regard in particular:
- (a) to any special knowledge or experience that he or she has or purports to have; and

- 31.3.1 has or may have any financial implications for the Union;
- 31.3.2 is or may be in breach of, contrary to or otherwise inconsistent with charity or education law or any other legal requirements (including ultra vires);
- 31.3.3 is not or may not be in the best interests of the Union or all or any of its charitable objects; or
- 31.3.4 will or may otherwise affect the discharge of any or all of the responsibilities referred to in clause 31.2.

31.4 No alteration of this Constitution or the Bye-Laws shall invalidate any prior act of the Trustees which would have been valid if that alteration had not been made.

31.5 All acts done by a person acting as a Trustee shall, even if it is afterwards discovered that there was a defect in his or her appointment or that he or she was disqualified from holding office or had vacated office, be as valid as if such person had been duly appointed and was qualified and had continued to be a Trustee.

32. Trustees may delegate

32.1 Subject to this Constitution, the Trustees may delegate any of their powers or functions to any committee.

32.2 Subject to this Constitution, the Trustees may delegate the implementation of their decisions or day to day management of the affairs of the Union to any person or committee.

as they think fit.

32.4 The Trustees may authorise further delegation of the relevant powers, functions, implementation of decisions or day to day management by any person or committee to whom they are delegated.

32.5 The Trustees may revoke any delegation in whole or part, or alter its terms and conditions.

32.6 The Trustees may by power of attorney or otherwise appoint any person to be the agent of the Union for such purposes and on such conditions as they determine.

33. Committees

33.1 In the case of delegation to committees:

33.1.1 the resolution making the delegation must specify those who shall serve or be asked to serve on such committee (although the resolution may allow the committee to make co-options up to a specified number);

33.1.2 subject to clause 33.3, the composition of any committee shall be in the discretion of the Trustees but must include at least one of their number as the resolution may specify;

- 33.1.3 the deliberations of any committee must be reported regularly to the Trustees and any resolution passed or decision taken by any committee must be reported promptly to the Trustees and every committee must appoint a secretary for that purpose;
 - 33.1.4 no committee shall knowingly incur expenditure or liability on behalf of the Union except where authorised by the Trustees or in accordance with a budget which has been approved by the Trustees; and
 - 33.1.5 the Trustees shall from time to time review the arrangements which they have made for the delegation of their powers.
- 33.2 The Trustees shall establish the following committees in accordance with their powers under clauses 32 and 33.1:
- 33.2.1 Executive Committee (as further described in clause 35);
 - 33.2.2 Appointments Committee (as required);
 - 33.2.3 Finance Committee; and

The Trustees may empower such committee to resolve upon the operation of any bank account according to such mandate as it shall think fit provided that the signature or agreement of at least one Trustee shall be required for cheques or payments above such amount as the Trustees shall determine (which may be contained in the Bye-Laws) and provided always that no committee shall incur expenditure on behalf of the Union except in accordance with a budget which has been approved by the Trustees.
- 33.4 The meetings and proceedings of any committee shall be governed by the clauses of this Constitution regulating the meetings and proceedings of the Trustees so far as they apply and are not superseded by any Bye-Laws.

34. Delegation of day-to-day management powers to the Chief Executive

In the case of delegation of the day-to-day management of the Union to the Chief Executive:

- 34.1 the delegated power shall be to manage the Union by implementing the policy and strategy adopted by and within a budget approved by the Trustees and if applicable to advise the Trustees in relation to such policy, strategy and budget;
- 34.2 the Trustees shall provide the Chief Executive with a description of his or her role and the extent of his or her authority;
- 34.3 the Chief Executive shall report regularly to the Trustees on the activities undertaken in managing the Union and provide them regularly with management accounts which are sufficient to explain the financial position of the Union; and 34.4 the Trustees shall provide the Chief Executive with a performance management structure to aid his or her work plan and development.

35. The Executive Committee and Appointments Committee

35.1 Unless the Trustees determine otherwise, the Executive Committee shall comprise:

35.1.1 the Sabbatical Officers; and

35.1.2 any other elected student representatives as determined by the Bye-Laws.

35.2 The Executive Committee's responsibility shall not include the duties of the Trustees as set out in clause 31 but may include representation and campaigning work and the implementation of Policy save in so far as these responsibilities have been retained by the Board of Trustees or delegated to another committee.

35.3 The Chief Executive and the Union's senior management team may attend meetings of the Executive Committee at the request of the Executive Committee.

35.4 The Executive Committee shall meet in accordance with the Bye-Laws. For the avoidance of doubt, a meeting of the Executive Committee shall not constitute a meeting of the CIO Members or the Board of Trustees, notwithstanding that the quorum requirements for a Trustee meeting set out in clause 43.2 are met unless proper notice has been given in accordance with this Constitution of a meeting of the CIO Members or the Board of Trustees.

35.5 Unless the Trustees determine otherwise, the Appointments Committee shall comprise:

35.5.1 the Chair;

35.5.2 at least one Sabbatical Trustee; and

35.5.3 at least one External Trustee.

35.6 The duties of the Appointments Committee shall include making (or making recommendations for) those appointments for which it has responsibility under this Constitution.

DECISION-MAKING BY TRUSTEES

36. Trustees to take decisions collectively

Any decision of the Trustees must be either a majority decision at a meeting or a decision taken in accordance with clause 46 (decisions without a meeting).

37. Trustees' meetings

37.1 The Trustees must hold a minimum of four meetings in each Academic Year.

37.2 Guests or observers can attend meetings of the Trustees at the discretion of the Chair of the Meeting.

38. Calling a Trustees' meeting

Any two Trustees may, and the Chief Executive at the request of two Trustees must, call a Trustees' meeting at any time.

39. Length of Notice

A Trustees' meeting must be called by at least seven clear days' notice unless either:

- 39.1 all the Trustees agree; or
- 39.2 urgent circumstances reasonably require shorter notice (in which event only the business the subject of the urgent circumstances may be on the agenda of such meeting).

40. Contents of Notice

Every notice calling a Trustees' meeting must specify:

- 40.1 the place, day and time of the meeting;
- 40.2 the general particulars of all business to be considered at such meeting; and
- 40.3 if it is anticipated that Trustees participating in the meeting will not be in the same place, how it is proposed that they should communicate with each other during the meeting.

41. Service of Notice

Notice of Trustees' meetings must be given to each Trustee. Notice of Trustees' meeting may be sent by Electronic Means to an address provided by the Trustee from time to time for the purpose.

42. Participation in Trustees' meetings

- 42.1 Subject to this Constitution, Trustees participate in a Trustees' meeting, or part of a Trustees' meeting, when:
 - 42.1.1 the meeting has been called and takes place in accordance with the Constitution; and
 - 42.1.2 each participant can speak to and be heard by the others, so that they may communicate with the other CIO Members any information, opinions or decision they have on any particular item of the business of the CIO Meeting.
- 42.2 In determining whether Trustees are participating in a Trustees' meeting, it is irrelevant where any Trustees are or how they communicate with each other.
- 42.3 If all the Trustees participating in a meeting are not in the same place, they may decide that the meeting is to be treated as taking place wherever any of them is.

43. Quorum for Trustees' meetings

43.1 At a Trustees' meeting, unless a quorum is participating, no proposal is to be voted on, except a proposal to call another meeting.

43.2 The quorum for Trustees' meetings until and including the Effective Date shall be two. Thereafter, the quorum for Trustees' meetings may be fixed from time to time by a decision of the Trustees, but it must never be less than four. Where the resolution or issue under discussion concerns a matter in respect of which some or all of the Trustees have a conflict of interest, the quorum shall be four.

44. Chair and Deputy Chair

44.1 The Trustees shall elect by simple majority from amongst the Sabbatical Trustees a Chair of the Trustees and may remove the person so appointed by simple majority vote at any time. The Chair may hold office for so long as he or she remains a Sabbatical Trustee not exceeding 24 consecutive or non-consecutive months. A Chair of Trustees must be subject to re-election after being in office for 12 consecutive months.

44.2 The Trustees shall elect by simple majority from amongst the External Trustees a Deputy Chair of the Trustees and may remove the person so appointed by simple majority vote at any time. The role of the Deputy Chair will be to support the Chair.

44.3 The Chair or, in his or her absence, the Deputy Chair shall preside as Chair of Meetings of the Trustees. In the absence of the Chair and the Deputy Chair, another Trustee appointed by the Trustees present shall preside as Chair of the Meeting of Trustees.

45. Casting vote

45.1 If the numbers of votes for and against a proposal at a Trustees' meeting are equal, the Chair of the Meeting has a casting vote in addition to any other vote he or she may have.

45.2 Clause 45.1 does not apply if, in accordance with the Constitution, the Chair of the Meeting is not to be counted as participating in the decision-making process for quorum or voting purposes.

46. Unanimous decisions without a meeting

46.1 A decision is taken in accordance with this clause when all of the Trustees indicate to each other by any means (including without limitation by Electronic Means, such as by email or by telephone) that they share a common view on a matter. The Trustees cannot rely on this clause to make a decision if one or more of the Trustees has a conflict of interest or duty which, under clause 47, results in them not being entitled to vote.

46.2 Such a decision may, but need not, take the form of a resolution in writing, copies of which have been signed by each Trustee or to which each Trustee has otherwise indicated agreement in writing.

46.3 A decision which is made in accordance with this clause 46 shall be as valid and effectual as if it had been passed at a meeting duly convened and held, provided the following conditions are complied with:

46.3.1 approval from each Trustee must be received by one person being either such person as all the Trustees have nominated in advance for that purpose or such other person as volunteers if necessary ("the Recipient"), which person may, for the avoidance of doubt, be one of the Trustees;

46.3.2 following receipt of responses from all of the Trustees, the Recipient must communicate to all of the Trustees (by any means) whether the resolution has been formally approved by the Trustees in accordance with this clause;

46.3.3 the date of the decision shall be the date of the communication from the Recipient confirming formal approval; and

46.3.4 the Recipient must prepare a minute of the decision in accordance with clause 53 (Minutes).

47. Conflicts of interest

Declaration of interests

47.1 A Trustee must declare the nature and extent of:

47.1.1 any direct or indirect material interest which he or she has in a proposed transaction or arrangement with the Union; and

47.1.2 any direct or indirect interest or any duty which he or she has which conflicts or may conflict with the interests of the Union or his or her duties to the Union.

Participation in decision-making

47.2 If a Trustee's interest or duty cannot reasonably be regarded as giving rise to a conflict of interest or a conflict of duties with or in respect of the Union, he or she is entitled to participate in the decision-making process, to be counted in the quorum and to vote in relation to the matter. Any uncertainty about whether a Trustee's interest or duty is likely to give rise to a conflict shall be determined by a majority decision of the other Trustees taking part in the decision-making process. For the avoidance of doubt, the following transactions or arrangements shall be presumed as not reasonably likely to give rise to a conflict of interest provided all of the Trustees have the same interest:

47.2.1 approval of trustee expenses policies;

47.2.2 payment of premiums for trustee indemnity insurance; and

47.2.3 receipt by a Trustee in his or her capacity as beneficiary of the Union of benefits which are available generally to all beneficiaries.

47.3 If a Trustee's interest or duty gives rise (or could reasonably be regarded as likely to give rise) to a conflict of interest or a conflict of duties with or in respect of the Union, he or she must:

47.3.1 take part in the decision-making process only to such extent as in the view of the other Trustees is necessary to inform the debate;

47.3.2 not be counted in the quorum for that part of the process; and 47.3.3 withdraw during the vote and have no vote on the matter.

48. Register of Trustees' interests

The Trustees must cause a register of Trustees' interests to be kept.

49.1.4 appoint associate members in accordance with clause 16 and the Bye-Laws.

49.2 The composition and proceedings of the Student Council shall be set out in the Bye-Laws. No Student Member may hold more than one seat on the Student Council at any one time.

PART 5

ADMINISTRATIVE ARRANGEMENTS AND MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

50. Bye-Laws

The Trustees and the Student Council shall have the power from time to time to jointly make, repeal or amend Bye-Laws as to the management of the Union and its working practices provided that such Bye-Laws shall not be inconsistent with this

Constitution and in the event of any inconsistency the terms of this Constitution shall prevail.

- 51.6 When communicating any notice or proposal via a website, the Trustees must take reasonable steps to ensure that CIO Members and Trustees are promptly notified of the publication of any such notice or proposal.

Union's deemed agreement to electronic communications

- 51.7 If the Union sends or supplies documents or information to another person in Electronic Form:
- 51.7.1 the Union is treated as having agreed to accept a response in Electronic Form; and
- 51.7.2 where the document or information is sent or supplied by the Union by Electronic Means from an electronic address, or the Union has given such an address in the document or information (subject to any limitations specified when providing that address), the Union is treated as having agreed to the response being sent by Electronic Means to that address.
- 51.8 Subject to the General Regulations and Dissolution Resolutions, a Trustee or any other person (other than in their capacity as a CIO Member) may agree with the Union that notices or documents sent to that person in a particular way are deemed to have been received within a specified time and for the specified time to be less than 48 hours.

Deemed delivery

- 51.9 Where any document or information is sent or supplied by the Union to the Trustees or the CIO Members:
