

For the position of Union Development and Democracy Officer, we had two candidates; Jade Cioffi and Adam Dyett.

In Round One, total valid votes in this position are 1350, making quota 675.

Jade receives 755 votes, Adam receives 560, and RON receives 167, and Jade is elected.

For the position of Wellbeing Officer, we had four candidates; Niamh Hardy, Vic Presdee, Tom Robinson and Jamie Sellers.

For Round Two, total valid votes are 1374, making quota 687.

In round 1 Niamh received 195 votes, Vic received 332, Tom received 539, James received 275, and RON received 33.

Niamh and RON are eliminated and have their votes redistributed.

In round 2, quota is 601. Vic received 350 votes, Tom received 562, and Jamie received 290. Jamie is eliminated and has his votes redistributed.

In round 3, quota is 503.5. Vic received 398 votes, and Tom received 609 and is elected as your new Wellbeing Officer.

For the position of Education Officer, we had three candidates: Sam Eades, Sam Hackney, and Jack Shanks.

There were 1346 votes, making quota 673.

In round 1, Sam Eades received 283 votes, Sam Hackney received 528, Jack received 483, and RON received 52.

Sam Eades and RON are eliminated and have their votes redistributed.

In round 2, quota is 549. Sam Hackney received 569 votes, and Jack received 529, so Sam is elected as your new Education Officer.

For the position of Experience and Community Officer, we had six candidates; Rob Beilby, Sophie Borman, Natasha Dury, Saada Elmi, Maisie Glock, and Matt Kemp.

In this election, there were 1396 votes with a quota of 698. In round 1, Rob received 185 votes, Sophie received 323, Natasha received 116, Saada received 272, Maisie received 340, and Matt received 138. RON only gets 22 votes and is eliminated and quota recalculated as 668.5.

In round 2, Rob received 185 votes, Sophie received 324, Natasha received 116, Saada received 272, Maisie received 342, and Matt received 138. No one meets quota so Natasha is eliminated and votes redistributed.

In round 3 quota is 652.5. Rob received 194 votes, Sophie received 332, Saada received 278, Maisie received 360, and Matt received 141. No one meets quota so Matt is eliminated and votes redistributed.

In round 4 quota is 608.5. Rob received 209 votes, Sophie received 342, Saada received 288 and Maisie received 378. No one meets quota so Rob is eliminated and votes redistributed.

In round 5 quota is 551.5. Sophie received 368 votes, Saada received 314 and Maisie received 421. No one meets quota so Saada is eliminated and votes redistributed.

In round 6 quota is 450.5. Sophie received 430 votes and Maisie received 471. Maisie is therefore elected as your first ever Experience and Community Officer.